

When I was one war started,
People were killed and blood was everywhere.
Guns go bang, all the people are dead!
Soldiers were killed and homes destroyed.
The battlefields are full of soldiers and blood
and children are crying - helicopters are flying,
across the sky, as they drop bombs around the place.
Mums and dads are worried about their children.
Many people are crying because their houses
are gone and their children are sick.

By Edi Lopes

Thank you soldiers.

Thank you for everything you've done.

Red, black and green are perfect to me.

The poppy is a symbol to show you care or you wouldn't dare.

Thank you soldiers we will not forget that you gave your life so we could rest.

R.I.P

We can't thank you enough.

But you're not fighting anymore so we can say thanks more and more.

G.R.H.S

Jordan Axtell age 10

Windale primary school oxford

We'll never forget!!!

We'll never forget your love you gave to us,
We'll never forget your name on that wall,
We'll never forget the British legion,
We'll never forget the poppies on the fields,
But most of all,

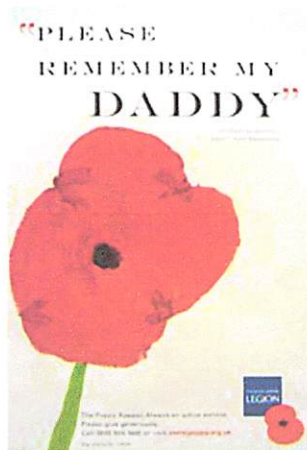

We'll never forget you.

10 years old

By: Chloe Slade

Windale primary school

Oxford

War

Sadness spreads among us all,

As another soldier dies.

War has killed many innocent lives,

As they sleep for eternity.

They all gathered at the cenotaph,

A structure of memorial.

They laid wreaths of poppies,

Right beside their graves.

They were killed on the battlefield,

As everybody knows.

Violence could lead to death,

And another devastated family.

The soldiers gave us hope,

Out in what seems like hell.

So we wear poppies to remember,
Those who have fallen.

By Jack Sibley

Aged 10

Windale Primary school

Oxford `

We have lost you

Thank you for your help, Thank you for your love, you have gone now, What are we going to do?

We have poppies to remember you.

We will never forget the time you kept us safe.

If we did not have you half of our heart would be gone, We are very thank full and happy.

We still remember he red black and green.

We are feeling hope for you.

Never give up.

You are very brave to be in the war
R.I.P ARE HERO'S ARE YOU

By: Teigan Charlett

Age: 11

WINDALE PRIMARY SCHOOL

Full of sorrow

- When I was there full of sorrow I never foudit I would be there tomorrow I am so sad I have no dad I have no mum my body is so numb i will remember my howl femalely although I live with my granny I keep on telling her she will be ok just to help her get though the day when she gets angry I take her out so she wont shout and shout now I say is a star I always think she is so far and now that I am gone all my work is surly done from Jacob smith 11 year's old win dale primary school.

POPPY DAY

Guns guns firing everywhere Blood bloody travels down my spine people die in fruit of me everyone fire fire Guns and grenades behind me -BOOM. JAY 10 oxford

War of sorrow

Remembrance Day. It's not just to remember it to cherish your freedom .remember the people who gave it to you the poppies are to remember. Some people are heart Broken. You should always remember the people who lost their lives in wars, just fighting for freedom. They are heroic heroes not scared of anything they have seen

Horrifying. Fighting war after war

Dominic bullock

10 years old

windale primary school

Oxford

The D- DAY LANDINGS

It was June 6 1944 German Artillery shredding the soldiers apart.

All of the blood and gore spreading through the beaches of Normandy.

We remember we remember the soldiers who fought for our freedom and the one who died.

But the soldiers the soldiers who died in an unfaithful way.

Laying there dead their parts of bodies missing in the parts of the beaches waiting to be discovered.

We will find them and put them in their final resting place where there's no sign of war.

But what can I do I am only a ghost after all from the war the war for Normandy.

By Christopher

Age 10

Windale primary school

Oxford